Subject: Federal Trademark Search Results

Here is the net take away from the trademark searches that were conducted last week on the potential new company names. This is the interpretation from our trademark group. Please recognize, however, that your attorneys may have their own judgements about these names.

Category One – “No”

American National – NO

This is the biggest “no” of the group of names that were researched, as there is a direct conflict with American National Bank

HomeTime – NO

Similar classes with the exact same name

PointOne – NO

There is a one point, and the registration office often looks at the reverse of words as a conflict. This particularly true when the space is not crowded, and this space is not – there is only one with the OnePoint name.

Category Two – “Maybe”

AmPoint – MAYBE

There is an AmeriPoint that is registered. There is a risk that the examiner will equate Am with Ameri and with American. If you are successful in registering this name, it will likely have poor protectability.

AmNational – MAYBE

There is an American National Remittance, so there is the same Am = American question. Also there has been AmeriNational registrations that were abandoned. It is often questionable when you see abandoned names as to why they were abandoned.

Category Three – “Pretty Good”

CreditWide – PRETTY GOOD

NationWide is closest. It is unlikely that this will be seen as a conflict. However, NationWide is such a large company, they may choose to take action against use of the CreditWide name. Although it is unlikely that this challenge would be successful, it could delay and complicate matters.

NationCentral – PRETTY GOOD

No major obvious conflicts.

NationHouse – PRETTY GOOD

No major obvious conflicts.

NationStar – PRETTY GOOD

There are Lone Star registrations, but that is likely too generic to be seen as a conflict.

Category Four - Good

CornerPoint – GOOD

No real conflicts.

Home National – GOOD

This is a very crowded space, including Nation Home (a word reversal). but it is so crowded that it may be a good rationale for approval of Home National .

HomeWide – GOOD

There is a website for financial information by this name that is registered. Others have abandoned, which raises questions. But this name is a good candidate for registration.

NewWay – GOOD

There are tag lines but no company name that uses NewWay.

Rob and Courtney, I hope this provides the input that you are looking for on these new name candidates. As discussed, we can rapidly field consumer research (including verbatims) if this next round of discovery yields more than one potential name.

Dear Sample A. Sample,

As a valued business partner, I want to personally announce we have changed our name, effective July 12, 2006, to Nationstar Mortgage LLC (formerly known as Centex Home Equity).

In March, Centex Corporation signed an agreement with Fortress Investment Group LLC to acquire Centex Home Equity, and on July 11th, the sale was completed and our name officially became Nationstar Mortgage.

What does this mean for you?

You may have already received some communications about the name change, and I want to assure you, it's business as usual. We have a new company name, but our commitment to you and our business has not changed. We will continue to be a leading non-prime mortgage lender in the wholesale market.

Our new company name and logo will now appear on your loan documents and forms, company communications will come from Nationstar Correspondent, email addresses are now, firstname.lastname@nationstarmail.com, and our website is NationstarLending.com—but nothing else will be changing. Above all, you'll still receive the same great service you've come to expect from us.
